

Victoria M. Barry

PARTNER

Victoria M. Barry (Torie) is a Partner in Bennett Thrasher's Tax department. Torie has nearly 30 years of experience in her career at Bennett Thrasher and is responsible for coordinating tax compliance engagements, tax mitigation strategies and consulting services for closely held corporations, partnerships, and individuals. Torie works in a wide range of industries, but her most significant experience has derived from serving companies in the Professional Services space. She leads the firm's Professional Services industry segment and has served a variety of professional services clients throughout her career. She understands the challenges professional service clients face and helps provide solutions to meet their needs. Torie focuses on serving partnerships with operations throughout the U.S. She helps clients manage the challenges of complying with the tax filing requirements of differing states, while also providing tax planning opportunities to minimize her clients' overall tax burden.

Torie joined Bennett Thrasher in 1995 after graduating from University of North Georgia with a Bachelor of Business Administration (Accounting) and in 1997 became a Certified Public Accountant (CPA), licensed to practice in Georgia. She is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA) and the Georgia Society of CPAs (GSCPA). She currently serves on the Board of Directors for the GSCPA and as a Council member for the AICPA.
