PARTNER

Brian Sengson is a Partner in Bennett Thrasher's State & Local Tax practice. He specializes in helping clients reduce their effective state tax rates through multistate tax planning, state credits and economic development incentives. He also provides state tax consulting for M&A due diligence with an emphasis on income and franchise tax, sales and use tax and unclaimed property.

His industry experience includes healthcare, private equity and investment companies, professional services and technology.

Prior to Bennett Thrasher, Brian managed the tax litigation practice of a national consulting firm specializing in federal and state tax credits for small- to medium-sized businesses and Fortune 500 companies.

Brian is a licensed attorney with the State Bar of Georgia.
