

Jim Dougherty

PARTNER

Jim Dougherty is a Partner in Bennett Thrasher's Technology Services department. He has more than 15 years of industry experience and a commitment to customer service. Jim has streamlined internal operations, designed and built networks for small- to medium-sized businesses and provides outsourced CIO Services.

Prior to joining Bennett Thrasher, Jim was the Chief Operating Officer for Graves Technology Group, LLC. He joined Graves Technology in 2010 and focused on streamlining process and procedures for day-to-day activities. He got his start at an L.A.-based IT service company, providing technical support and project management.

Jim views IT as a tool to support and enhance an organization's daily operations and organizational objectives.
