

Ben Miller

PARTNER

Ben Miller is a Partner and leader of Bennett Thrasher's Transfer Pricing practice. He works with clients to design, implement and maintain transfer pricing policies that align strategic business objectives with local and foreign transfer pricing rules and regulations. Ben's experience includes evaluating the transfer prices of tangible goods, intangible property, services and loans for various purposes, including penalty protection documentation, planning, international supply chain and debt restructuring, Advance Pricing Agreements, audit defense and due diligence for mergers and acquisitions. His industry experience is broad based, with recent focus in manufacturing and distribution, technology, professional services and real estate.

Prior to Bennett Thrasher, Ben worked in the Deloitte Tax LLP Transfer Pricing practice where he assisted corporations operating in a variety of industries.

Ben is currently the Vice Chair, Transfer Pricing of the International Tax Committee of DFK International.

CONTACT

678.302.1483
benjamin.miller@btcpa.net

PRACTICE AREAS

International Tax
Mergers & Acquisitions
Transfer Pricing

INDUSTRY EXPERIENCE

Manufacturing & Distribution
Professional Services
Real Estate
Technology

EDUCATION

Doctor of Philosophy (Economics), Georgia State University
Master of Arts (Economics), Georgia State University
Bachelor of Business Administration (International Economics) and Bachelor of Arts (Hispanic Linguistics), University of Florida

PROFESSIONAL AFFILIATIONS

American Economic Association
LEA Global, International Tax Committee

COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT

Dad's Garage Theater Company
Ramah Darom
Tommy Nobis Center