Denise Brumley

MANAGER

Denise Brumley is a Manager in Bennett Thrasher's Disputes, Valuation & Forensics practice. She brings seven years of experience consulting on the value of privately held companies. Denise performs business valuations for a wide range of purposes including estate and gift tax compliance. She also has experience with valuations for financial reporting purposes including purchase price allocations and goodwill impairment, and assists business owners with valuations related to mergers and acquisitions and exit planning. In addition, Denise helps clients calculate damages for litigation support purposes. She has experience in a wide range of industries including technology, construction, manufacturing, ecommerce, hospitality, healthcare and distributing.

Denise holds bachelor's degrees in both accounting and finance from Georgia State University. She is a Certified Public Accountant (CPA), licensed in the State of Georgia. In addition, Denise is Accredited in Business Valuation (ABV) by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants.

In her free time, Denise enjoys volunteering in the greater Atlanta area. She serves as Community Service Chair for the BT Foundation. In addition, Denise volunteers with other local non-profit organizations including Hope Thru Soap and the Gwinnett County Humane Society.
