

Chris Good

MANAGER

Chris serves as a Manager within the Valuation practice at Bennett Thrasher and is responsible for business development, relationship management, and project execution across the firm's private equity, venture capital, and operating company clients. Chris oversees the completion and delivery of gift and estate tax valuation, 409A valuations, financial models, and other tax reporting engagements. He has experience working alongside CFO's, private equity investors, small business owners, and financial planners on valuations and financial models within a variety of industries. Chris views consulting as an opportunity to build trust and serve others.

Prior to joining Bennett Thrasher, Chris spent time as a Vice President of the Valuation practice with Intrinsic, LLC and Plante Moran. He is a CFA Charterholder.
